Distance Learning: Learners will use a computer, tablet or some other device for their learning while connected to the internet to access information or communicate with their instructor and other learners.

We offer both 100% online courses as well as in person courses so that our students can receive all of the benefits of a traditional learning environment but using a course shell classroom.

The purpose of a hybrid course is to take advantage of the best features of both face-to-face and online learning. While hybrid classes and distance learning classes both have online elements, there are some distinct differences between the two types of courses.

STUDENT HONOR CODE

Providing Quality Business Training

The Honor Code is the bloom Business and Vocational Training Institute's statement on academic integrity written in 2022. It articulates college expectations of students and faculty in establishing and maintaining the highest standards in academic work.

Honor Code

1. The Honor Code is an undertaking of the students, individually and collectively:
 - A. that they will not give or receive aid in examinations; that they will not give or receive unpermitted aid in class work, in the preparation of reports, or in any other work that is to be used by the instructor as the basis of grading;
 - B. that they will do their share and take an active part in seeing to it that others as well as themselves uphold the spirit and letter of the Honor Code

2. The faculty on its part manifests its confidence in the honor of its students by refraining from proctoring examinations and from taking unusual and unreasonable precautions to prevent the forms of dishonesty mentioned above. The faculty will also avoid, as far as practicable, academic procedures that create temptations to violate the Honor Code.

3. While the faculty alone has the right and obligation to set academic requirements, the students and faculty will work together to establish optimal conditions for honorable academic work.

Violations of the Honor Code

Examples of conduct that have been regarded as being in violation of the Honor Code include:

- Copying from another's examination paper or allowing another to copy from one's own paper
- Unpermitted collaboration
- Plagiarism
- Revising and resubmitting a quiz or exam for regrading, without the instructor's knowledge and consent
- Giving or receiving unpermitted aid on a take-home examination ▪ Representing as one's own work the work of another
- Giving or receiving aid on an academic assignment under circumstances in which a reasonable person should have known that such aid was not permitted
- Coming to class in an intoxicated or drugged state.
- Possession of drugs or alcohol on campus.
- Possession of a weapon on campus.
- Behavior creating a safety hazard to other(s).
- Disobedient or disrespectful behavior
- Stealing or damaging the property of another.

Sanctions for Violating the Honor Code

In recent years, most student disciplinary cases have involved Honor Code violations; of these, the most frequent arise when a student submits another's work as his or her own or gives or receives unpermitted aid. The standard sanction for a first offense includes a one-quarter suspension from the University and 40 hours of community service. In addition, most faculty members issue a "No Pass" or "No Credit" for the course in which the violation occurred. The standard sanction for multiple violations (e.g. cheating more than once in the same course) is a three-quarter suspension and 40 or more hours of community service.
